Delisting of Electrolux Professional's series A shares

As previously announced Electrolux Professional has applied for a delisting of Electrolux Professional's series A shares from Nasdaq Stockholm. Nasdaq Stockholm has now decided to delist the series A shares. Last day of trading in the series A shares will be September 4, 2020. The delisting-decision will only concern the series A shares, and will not affect the company's series B shares.

Holders of Electrolux Professional's series A shares can, as well before as after last day of trading, in accordance with § 5 of the Articles of Association, request conversion of their series A shares into series B shares. Additional information about the conversion and how such request shall be submitted can be found on the company's website <https://www.electroluxprofessional.com/corporate/conversion-of-shares/>.

Holdings of series A shares that are not converted into series A shares will after September 4, 2020 constitute unlisted holdings.
